

St. Luke's & St. John's

Proclaiming Christ in Devon

Dearest friends,

The third Sunday in Advent is called Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete simply means 'rejoice'.

It's taken from the latin introit for the day's Mass:

'Gaudete in Domino semper'

Or in English:

'Rejoice in the Lord always'

And so today we look at what we have to rejoice about. Over the last two weeks we have been encouraged to 'wake up', then to 'stay awake', this week we take joy in our faith and one another.

We have woken in the dark ahead of the coming of The Light - and this week - we lift our heads and remind ourselves that the coming of Jesus Christ is something that we rejoice about.

The introit for the Mass continues:

'Let your forbearance be known to all, for the Lord is near at hand; have no anxiety about anything, but in all things, by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be known to God'

Today we try to take our anxiety and we hand it over to God and in doing so we find a peace that only He can give us.

In that peace we discover the joy of loving God and in that joy - that gift - we should rejoice!

Sometimes it's hard to find that peace and when it is difficult we must give God everything in prayer - and in opening ourselves to God in prayer we are changed.

That is the power of prayer, not that God changes the world for us, but that we are changed to be more like God.

In love,

Fr. Matthew

It's also a chance to review the Autumn and Christmas term and see if there are any lessons to learn or new ideas for next year.

O Antiphons

The O Antiphons are ancient Advent chants invoking titles of Christ, expressing longing for the Messiah and highlighting salvation themes in the days before Christmas. They start this week on the 17th December.
